

IT WAS A MAGICAL DAY FOR KIDS OF ALL AGES!

TWTC's Holiday Fundraiser Lifts the Spirits of Everyone in the House

There were smiling cats in funny hats everywhere you looked.

For toppers, each child received a Dr. Seuss book at Borders' post-theatre reception, courtesy of Harris Bank's Employee Affinity Groups.

READY? THE LION KING IS NEXT!

Many of those who attended the sold-out Seussical fundraiser already have purchased their tickets for next year, to make sure they don't miss out on the fun. Seats to this mega popular production are extremely limited.

It's not too early to plan a great family event to celebrate the holidays. Why not start now recruiting a group of family members or friends for a day of shopping in the Loop, capped off by the award-winning musical, The Lion King?

The benefit performance is scheduled

Sunday, December 14, 2003 at 1 o'clock p.m. at the Cadillac Palace Theatre, 151 West Randolph.

To extend the fun, Borders will once again host a post-theatre reception.

Tickets range from $60 to $250. For your convenience, you may purchase your tickets at the TWTC website: www.womenstreatmentcenter.org or call Yolanda Goins at (312) 633-4951.
